Old Business:

Spring league - there are still Sunday games due to limited space

Teams need to read spring rule book

Committee assignments, admin will be contacted budget is an example.

New Business:

Ref dates on website

Erick Walker stepped down 2/28/14 and James Rasmussen is now Referee Director

Budget - Toto/Mike/Rod will condense the budget; there will be a possible increase of around $10.00 per player and $25.00 per Crossfire player due to usage of fields.

Hardship will be 75 percent that we pay. CJSJ playing league fees are the biggest expense. We have been cheapest in valley for years; rate increase will be to correct the past.

Fireworks - 30 percent for sales of script; 10 percent if you work scripts in the office. Booth will be on Fowler and Herndon.

FC Clovis will host a U12 Rec Tournament Fall Shoot-Out at Buchanan- Date TBA

Good of the Game:

4 state cup Crossfire teams

Coach of the year- Mr. Spurgeon
